Wow! I can't believe it's

November already and the weather is still as warm a it has been. But fall temperatures are just around the corner so please make sure to send your kiddo to school with a jacket. Please check out OPERATION CHRISTMAS CHILD information. It's a wonderful project that is near and dear to my heart. I pray everyone has a wonderful THANKSGIVING and counts their BLESSINGS. Look around God is Good....look into your child's eyes and tell them you love them.

In His Service Always!
